

Doreen started as a Community Hospital volunteer in March 2007. She started in the gift shop and shortly moved to the front reception desk. Doreen has more than 620 hours of donated time.

Doreen was born in Montreal, and then moved to Granby, Connecticut. She also lived in Old Orchard Beach, Maine before moving to Clifton, Colorado.

While she lived in the East, she owned a sailboat and sailed from April until mid-October each year. She kept her boat at Mystic Seaport in Connecticut and sailed to Block Island, Sag Harbor, Montauk, and Orient Point, which are all in New York, and to Newport and Point Judith, which are in Rhode Island. A few times while visiting in Kennebunkport, Maine, she had lunch with George W. Bush and Barbara Bush at one of the Bushes favorite restaurants.

Doreen has two grandchildren, Kyle and Taylor, and a son, Peter, who is married to Wendy. She enjoys reading, knitting, crafts and golf, doing things with her grandchildren, and volunteering.

Doreen belonged to CTEA (Canadian Telephone Employee Association) and now belongs to The Red Hat Society, RSVP, and a number of church groups.

Doreen has extensive work experience. She worked at Telephone of Canada; she was a second grade teacher's aide; she managed the front office at a doctor's office for 16 years; and she ran a 168 room motel.
