

Larry became a volunteer at Community Hospital on November 30, 2006. He volunteers at the front reception desk and has accumulated 356 volunteer hours. Larry greets everyone that enters the hospital with a big smile and hello.

Larry was born in Ohio and went to school in Dundalk, Maryland. He has one brother and one sister. Larry's family moved to Colorado after Larry graduated from high school.

Larry attended the University of Colorado where he met and married Charlene, who is also a volunteer at Community Hospital. They have two children, six grandchildren and one great grandchild. Larry worked for Allstate as a sales agent for 34 years before retiring and moving to Grand Junction. Once in Grand Junction, Larry served as president of the Grand Junction Newcomers Club.

Larry has enjoyed many things in life: being a Cub Scout leader, coaching little league, and going on many camping trips when his children were small. Larry enjoys working as a rules official at state golf tournaments as well as playing golf and card games of all kinds. He has traveled all over the United States and Mexico, including Panama, the Bahamas, and the Dominican Republic. Larry has belonged to Elks, Optimist, and the Grand Junction Newcomers Club.
