

Libby began volunteering at Community Hospital in September 1996. She worked in the gift shop for several years and now does special projects.

Libby was born in Butler, Pennsylvania and has 2 sisters, 6 children, 12 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren. Before moving to Grand Junction, Libby lived in Washington DC, Colorado Springs and Denver. She has traveled to Hawaii and Mexico; taken two island cruises; and gone to many casinos over the years.

Libby's hobbies and pastimes include traveling, shopping, doing crossword puzzles and reading. Her current reading project is to read the Bible in one year's time.

Libby has been in the hospital system for more than 50 years. Before she retired, she worked in the OB department at St. Anthony's Hospital in Denver making birth certificates while working for the Tri County Health Department. As a teenager she worked for the Italian Technical Delegation in Washington DC doing photo copy work and being a courier between delegations. She was paid by the Italian government.

Libby is a devout Christian and enjoys being around other who share her interest and love of Trinity Broadcasting Network. She is a member of several animal rescue organizations and she supports Disabled and Paralyzed Veterans and Volunteers.
